Crash Investigations:

14 Mile and Dequindre, 2/17, 2247 hrs.

Officers responded to a personal injury crash where the at-fault gold Cadillac exited the lot of a business/restaurant at a high rate of speed directly in front of a Mercury Mountaineer that was S/B on Dequindre. The Mercury struck the Cadillac, spun out and came to rest on the east side of Dequindre. The 44-year-old female from Ann Arbor who was driving the Mercury sustained non-life threatening injuries. Her 44-year-old husband/passenger was not injured. The Cadillac continued south on Dequindre after impact. An area wide broadcast (B.O.L.) was put out for the suspect vehicle. A Madison Heights police officer located it in the area of 13 Mile and Dequindre and stopped it. Troy officers responded and found heavy damage on the driver's side of the Cadillac, rear axle broken and the rear window shattered. The 77-year-old male driver of the Cadillac thought he was at his house in Troy, when in fact he was in a condo complex in Madison Heights. He stated he "thought he got into a crash while traveling on Dequindre" and he stated he "didn't really know what happened but thought someone hit him." He was not injured. He stated he "had two beers." He failed sobriety tests and was arrested. He blew .13 on a breath test.

TROY PEOPLE CONCERNED
Help from the Heart

Our big fundraiser is being held on April 22, 2007 and we are having a raffle along with dinner to raise much-needed funds. To obtain raffle tickets go to:

Credit, Check, Identity Theft, and other Fraud:

Complainant reported someone used his debit card account number to make a fraudulent on-line $504.00 purchase with a company located in California.

Complainant discovered a $2100.00 fraudulent withdrawal from her checking account conducted on-line.

Complainant discovered four fraudulent charges using her credit card account number on-line.

Domestics/Family Troubles:

Officer noticed a '02 GMC Envoy swerving back and forth across all three lanes of traffic on west bound Big Beaver west of Rochester on 2/17 at 2300 hrs. Another vehicle pulled up and the driver advised the officer the Envoy nearly struck her and it appeared the male driver was "going crazy." The officer observed the male driver yelling at the female passenger and waiving his arms around. Upon attempting to stop it the Envoy continued driving. A second patrol unit pulled in front of it and both officers were able to force it to a stop. Upon approaching the vehicle the male driver yelled out to officers that they didn't know who they were "f.....ing with." He refused to follow officers' orders to place his hands outside the window and exit, claiming he was a "cobra commando" and he was "going to kill the officer issuing the orders." They were able to remove and secure him without incident during which time he told the officer he (officer) was a "dead man." His visibly shook up female passenger stated they were boyfriend/girlfriend, and suddenly for no apparent reason he ordered her out of the car. When she refused he began weaving back and forth in an attempt to frighten her so she would get out. The 25-year-old male driver from Troy was charged with "Reckless Driving," "Failure to Stop/Obeys a Police Officer's Signal," and "Hindering/Obstructing Police." He remained uncooperative during the booking process. Two pills were recovered in his pocket that turned out to be Xanax. He had no prescription for them in his possession and they were not in a prescription pillbox. Additional charges may be pending regarding improper possession of a schedule four narcotic.

Complainant reported her 18-year-old son stole $50.00 from her wallet and then took her car without permission. She believes he did this to purchase heroine. He returned later in the day with the car. She is considering prosecution.

One domestic assault report was made wherein female complainant stated she fled the scene after her boyfriend assaulted her. Officers went to the location however were unable to make contact with the suspect at that time. Investigation continues.

Officers responded to a report of a domestic assault wherein male suspect had fled the scene. Responding officers located the highly intoxicated suspect out on foot in the vicinity and arrested him.

In another report of a domestic assault the male suspect had left the scene prior to officers' arrival and was not located. Investigation is continuing.

Complainant came to the station to report her boyfriend assaulted her the day before with investigation continuing.

In addition to the above, Troy Officers responded to six additional incidents involving family troubles/domestic disputes where investigation revealed no assaults or other crimes occurred, therefore no formal enforcement action taken/required.

Drugs/Narcotics:

Rochester and Long Lake, 2/15, 2310 hrs.

Officer stopped a vehicle for an expired plate. The driver indicated he "didn't have any ID in his possession." He identified himself as a 26-year-old male. A search of the vehicle located a wallet containing a Michigan ID and driver's license in the name of a 36-year-old male from Shelby Twp. The photo on the license and ID matched the driver in question. A plastic baggie containing a small amount of crack cocaine was also recovered. The subject admitted he was the person listed on the driver's license located in the wallet. He was arrested for "Possession of Cocaine," "Driving on a Suspended License" and "Hindering a Police Officer by Providing False ID."

Maple and Stephenson, 2/16, 1534 hrs.

Officer stopped a Chevy Blazer for a traffic violation and arrested the 43-year-old male driver from Detroit for "Driving on a Suspended License." He also had a drug related warrant for his arrest from another jurisdiction. A Troy K-9 Unit check of the vehicle revealed a small plastic baggie between the driver's seat and front console with a small amount of cocaine for which the subject was also charged. His 36-year-old male passenger from Warren was released at the scene.

Crime Prevention Tips

Alcohol / Drugs

Be responsible, if you drink, DO NOT DRIVE!

If you serve alcohol, make sure that your guests make it home safely.
Don't serve alcohol to under aged children

As officer was checking the lot he observed two subjects in a parked '05 Toyota Prius. As the patrol car approached the 18-year-old male driver from Kentwood started to get out. The officer approached, looked inside and observed a baggie of marijuana on the driver's side floor. The driver admitted the marijuana was his. It weighed approximately 4 grams. He was issued a citation for "Possession of Marijuana" and released at the scene. His passenger was released with no charges.

Square Lake and Livernois, 2/18, 1451 hrs.

Officer stopped a silver Honda for a traffic violation. The 44-year-old male driver from Auburn Hills had a suspended driver's license and was arrested. A small amount of marijuana and an open beer were found inside the car for which he was also charged. His 54-year-old female passenger from Troy was cited for possessing open beer in an auto and released at the scene. They told officers they were just coming from church.

Drunk/Intoxicated Driving Incidents of Interest:

Taco Bell Drive-Through, 3268 Rochester, 2/17, 0310 hrs.

Officers responded on a report that the driver of a purple Jeep Cherokee had driven over the curb while entering the drive-through lane; had trouble speaking and appeared intoxicated. Officer stopped it as it pulled out. The 22-year-old male driver from Hamtramck admitted consuming a pint of alcohol. He failed sobriety tests and was arrested. His license was also suspended. He blew .20 on a breath test.

Livernois and Long Lake, 2/16, 2218 hrs.

Officers responded to a report of a drunk driver who had pulled into a lot near the intersection. Officers arrived and located the 57-year-old female driver from Rochester Hills slumped over the wheel with the car running, her foot on the brake with the gear in drive. She was awakened and placed the car in park. She was extremely intoxicated. An open bottle of gin was observed on the passenger seat. She failed sobriety tests, blew .25 on a preliminary breath test and was arrested. She refused to take a breath test and a search warrant for her blood was obtained. Second offense drunk driving charges pending toxicology results.

Adams and Square Lake, 2/17, 0055 hrs.

Officers responded to a report of a possible drunk driver and located it as it exited N/B I-75 at Adams. The gray Ford F150 proceeded south and then attempted a U-turn during which it went off-road and crashed into the snow bank on the shoulder. It continued driving slowly. Officer stopped it. When asked how much he had to drink the 51 year old male driver from Flint indicated he "had too many at the casino." He failed sobriety tests and

Embezzlements:

7-11, 5020 John R, 2/17

On 2/18 complainant reported noticing two Western Union checks issued/missing and the corresponding cash missing. A 22-year-old male cashier from Rochester Hills who was working at the time is suspected. Investigation continues.

Nordstrom, 2850 W. Big Beaver, 1/17-1/30

LPO (Loss Prevention Officer) discovered a 48-year-old female cashier from Rochester Hills conducted three fraudulent returns for a total of $499.26 and credited that amount to her own credit card account. Suspect agreed to repay the loss explaining the fraud as a result of having outstanding medical bills. She was terminated with prosecution pending.

Home Invasions:

John R, 2/1

Complainant came to station on 2/19 and reported she is handling the estate involving the residence in question. She learned from the subject she is allowing to reside at the location that on 2/1 while that person was sitting in the kitchen the rear door burst open and a male subject entered. The subject appeared surprised to see someone inside. He told the resident he just needed to use the phone and was allowed to do so, and then departed. He was apparently recognized as an old associate of the deceased. The rear security gate was forced open and damaged, as was the door leading into the residence at the time of the incident. Investigation continues.

Cheltenham, 2/20, 1600-2130 hrs.

Complainant stated she left the residence and then her son departed shortly thereafter. When she returned she found her bedroom ransacked, a flat screen TV, DVD player and jewelry stolen from therein. There was no sign of forced entry into the home. Complainant stated she used her key to open the door when she returned and believes it was locked. Officer found other exterior doors and windows secure. Complaint stated the pedestrian door leading from the garage into the house was left unlocked.

Larcenies:

Cherry, 2/14

Complainant stated when she returned home she found her TV, DVD player, telephone,

Ø Do not rely on others to watch your belongings. If they fail, you will be the victim, not them.

Ø Be cautious of who you allow into your home. If you invite guests that you really do not know into your home you are inviting trouble.

Complainant stated he left $200.00 start-up money in the register when he closed. When he returned to open the following morning it was gone. The store is secured in front by a security gate. Complainant stated a friend who was waiting for him to get off work closed it for him and may not have pulled it down sufficiently to secure it properly. Complainant left via the rear door, which he locked. Complainant stated he did find the gate completely down and secured when he checked it after discovering the missing money however indicated a suspect may have tried it, found it not completely secure, pulled it up, entered the store and pulled it down such that it secured when they left. No sign of forced entry.

Caribou Coffee, 3117 Crooks, 2/19, 1933 hrs.
Complainant reported she removed her wallet from her purse and walked up to the counter to make a purchase leaving the purse at her table. Upon returning, she discovered the purse missing. Employees checked the restaurant and found her purse discarded in the men's restroom minus complainant's cell phone and iPod. An employee indicated there was a suspicious male wandering around the restaurant at the time of the incident explaining he didn't place an order before leaving. Officer spoke to the manager of the restaurant next door who indicated there were two males inside around the time of the incident that appeared out of sorts with one of the two sweating profusely. He resembled the description of the subject seen inside the coffee shop. He was observed playing with and talking on a cell phone that he seemed to be holding down toward his lap. Both subjects ate without incident and were gone when officer followed-up. Description: B/M, 6-5, black coat, dark cap. Vehicle: White, '90 Olds 4 door, registered to a 34-year-old male from Pontiac.

Apparently while in the store the pair did make a cash purchase of two other wallets for a total of $337.08 using cash. Suspects were an Asian male, 30-35 years old, 5'-8" to 5'-10", medium build, dark hair; and an Asian female, 30-35 years old, 5'-5", medium build, dark shoulder length hair, wearing an orange/peach down coat and a yellow shirt.

Robberies:

Oakland Mall Lot, 412 W. 14 Mile, 2/20, 2030 hrs.

Witnesses reported while walking to their car in the lot they heard shouting and observed a male subject engaged in what appeared to be a fight with two other males. The two suspects ran to a newer white Chevy Impala with tinted windows, which was last seen driving along the south side of the mall toward John R. Witnesses indicated they heard it honking its horn and possibly yelling coming from the vehicle towards the males or from the males towards the vehicle as it drove away. Officers located the 27-year-old male victim from Detroit who stated his friend and his self exited the mall via the main south exit. He stated as they arrived at their vehicle the two suspects approached and indicated they wanted his eyeglasses. He stated he got out of the car and started fighting with them. During the altercation the glasses were broken. He stated his glasses were Cartier and cost $2500.00. The 15-year-old male from Detroit who was with him stated suspect #2 grabbed him but he was able to slip out of his jacket. His jacket was located by investigating officers in the same area witnesses last saw the two suspects running toward. Suspects were a B/M, approximately 19-20 years old, 6'-0", 170, short hair, wearing a blue and white jacket and a B/M, 19-20 years old, short hair, 5'-7", 140, wearing a blue and white jacket. Suspicious Incidents:

K-Mart headquarters, 3100 W. Big beaver, 2/16

Complainant reported subject bid on several items however when it came time to pay he represented he had to go to the bank to obtain a cashier's check. Security accompanied him and the transaction was denied due to a problematic credit account he was trying to draw a cash advance against. Upon arriving back at the property he fled from the security vehicle. Complainant stated subject may have taken a few items out earlier however the bulk of the purchase was left behind and recovered.

Norton, 2/17-2/18, 0000-1114 hrs.

Complainant observed footprints in the snow around a neighbor's and his own residence.

The footprints appeared to lead to complainant's bedroom windows as well as neighbor's other windows and rear door. They lead away in a southerly direction. Complainant was concerned someone may be peeping.

Lovington, 2/17, 0330 hrs.

Complainant heard what sounded like someone outside his apartment door insert a key in the deadbolt and attempt to unlock the lock. When the area was checked no one was observed. Complainant stated his wife told him she heard similar sounds at the door earlier in the day. No entry and no sign of force.

Beech Lane, 2/21, 0230 hrs.

Complainant reported hearing her dog barking on 2/20 and 2/21 at about 0200 hrs. each morning. On 2/21 she discovered the rope holding the back-yard gate closed was cut and there were footprints in the snow. The footprints stopped short of the house and at about the spot her barking dog would be visible at the rear of the interior of the home.

Traffic Altercations:

Vandalism:

Weapons Offenses:

Welfare Checks:

Complainant responded to apartment complex management office, contacted the Troy PD and reported that while speaking by phone to his roommate the roommate told him he had "armed himself with two handguns," made suicidal statements and shot himself in the leg. Officers responded to the apartment and attempted to make contact with the subject. While doing so a gunshot was heard. Officers located the 52-year-old male from Troy dead inside as a result of a self-inflicted gunshot wound to the head.

Officers responded to a business after complainant called to report her neighbor may be en-route armed with a handgun intent on committing suicide and that her husband was trying to make contact with the neighbor while meeting him there. Officers did not locate the neighbor there and proceeded to his residence where his wife stated she had just talked to him by phone and he stated he was parked in a garage in Madison Heights with the car running. Troy Dispatch obtained a cell phone number for him and officers began making contact attempts. He eventually responded and stated he was at a storage facility in Troy. Officers proceeded there and were able to continue speaking to him via his cell.

He confirmed he had a gun in the car but agreed to turn it over and obtain assistance. He complied with officers' directions to exit the vehicle. He was transported to the hospital without further incident. An unloaded .38 caliber revolver was recovered in a plastic bag on the front seat. Several rounds of ammunition were also recovered.

A 39-year-old male found extremely intoxicated required transport to the hospital for detox.

Complainant reported her son became incoherent during a phone conversation with his wife. Wife contacted complainant who responded to the residence and received no response. Officers had to force entry and eventually found the 39-year-old male locked in a bedroom into which they also had to force entry. They located the subject inside. He stated he didn't hear their attempts to summon him to the doors. He reported taking "four prescription sleeping pills as he was having trouble sleeping." He stated he "consumed a half bottle of wine as well and he was not suicidal." He was transported to the hospital for evaluation.

A 45-year-old male came to the station in an intoxicated state seeking assistance. He was transported to the hospital for detox.

Troy Officers responded to one incident involving an individual experiencing emotional/psychological difficulties and assisted w/transport to the hospital for evaluation/commitment.
