Crime Prevention Tips

Assaults

Don't let the traffic, roller-skating, photo-booths non-accessibility cause you to lose your temper. If someone says or does something to you to make you angry - stop and allow yourself to calm down before taking any action. All too often, people react by sinking to their level and getting involved in a physical confrontation. If you feel yourself being antagonized, call the police and let us help to settle the matter in a calm, legal and non-violent way.

Complainant stated her bank contacted her regarding suspicious activity on her credit card account. She checked and discovered someone used her credit card information to set up an account with a shipping company. $605.65 in fraudulent shipping charges had been made against the account. Several days later, she received a package on her doorstep from the shipper in question and discovered 9 American Express gift cheques inside. The gift cards appear to be counterfeit. The package was sent to her address, but to a subject with whom she is unfamiliar/has no knowledge. The shipping bill indicates it may have originated out of California.

Complainant discovered several unauthorized withdrawals from her checking account and credit accounts for approximately $8900.00 in total.

Comerica Bank, 1494 John R, 10/20/06

Manager came to station on 2/6 to report a 32-year-old male from Pontiac cashed a check for $911.71 made out to him from a business account and drawn on another bank. Ø Your belongings are not safe while you are playing sports or at work unless you have them properly locked or are in possession of them.

Ø Thieves wait for the right time and will take property quickly.

Ø Unfortunately you cannot always trust co-workers or other business associates.

Ø Do not rely on others to watch your belongings. If they fail, you will be the victim, not them.

Ø Be cautious of who you allow into your home. If you invite guests that you really do not know into your home you are inviting trouble.

Officers were unable to contact the parents who were out for the evening and located another adult relative to whom they turned the 16-year-old over to. - Micro printing on the oval ornamentation portrait framing around the president's face on the front of the note; "The United States of America" is printed on it's lower edge.
- Fine line printing patterns behind the portrait and building picture on the note are difficult to replicate.

These and other features will become easy to recognize with a little practice in handling money.

The most economical tool to assist in this effort is purchasing a small black light for use by all clerks, and left or installed for their use at the cash register.

Plain-clothes officers observed two subjects quickly exit the Kohl’s store, enter an ’05 Ford pickup parked in a handicapped spot and then immediately re-enter the store. Suspecting a possible retail fraud officers entered the store and observed one of the subjects take two Play Station games from the display, conceal them in the sleeve of his coat and exit without paying. Once inside he met up with other members of the group he was with. The store manager advised officers that a male member of the group returned a suit without a receipt. Because he had no receipt he was issued a store credit. The store credit was then used to purchase $200.00 in additional merchandise. Once the group exited the vehicle was stopped. The stolen Play Station games were recovered and the 14-year-old male was arrested. Five other computer games were recovered from the vehicle that the suspect admitted stealing from “unknown locations” over the past several days.
